

JOHN HODGES
Marketing Manager

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITIES

John is currently pursuing his J.D. from the Florida Coastal School of Law with a concentration in real estate / intellectual property law. He helps manage the firm's marketing efforts with a focus on digital media and IT. He also helps manage the development of digital content, the distribution of marketing materials, and the company website.

CAREER SUMMARY

John was born in Florida and has a great passion for boating, scuba diving and fishing around the state. John started as an intern with Grubb & Ellis | Phoenix Realty Group in the fall of 2010. Shortly after, he was hired on to help manage the firm's marketing efforts. In addition to his marketing and IT role, John provides support and assistance in Tenant/Landlord representation scenarios, with a focus on industrial and office properties. He also works with our brokers to prepare opinions of value, request for proposals, and various market reports.
